CAMPER SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM AGREEMENT

This Camper Scholarship Program Agreement is entered into by the American Camping Association, Inc. d/b/a American Camp Association ("ACA") an Indiana nonprofit, public benefit corporation, and [REDACTED] (the "Camper Scholarship Administrator") at [REDACTED], as of [REDACTED]. ACA and the Camper Scholarship Administrator are herein referred to collectively as the "Parties." The purpose of this program is to enable more children, youth, and adults to have a camp experience by awarding camper scholarships to cover fees. The Camper Scholarship Administrator selects its own campership recipients; however, ACA is particularly interested in stimulating interaction between campers from varying social, economic, racial, national, and cultural backgrounds. The Camper Scholarship Administrator shall make the availability of campership funds a matter of public knowledge through such reasonable and prudent means as to promote equal opportunity among individuals from varying social, economic, racial, national, and cultural backgrounds. ACA recommends that campership recipients under the age of eighteen remain anonymous to the camp community. The Campership Administrator may solicit contributions from parents, businesses, organizations, or foundations, subject to the terms and conditions of the ACA Camper Scholarship Gift Agreement and the Camper Scholarship Program Guidelines as set forth hereunder. All donor checks must be made payable to the ACA with "Camper Scholarship Program/[REDACTED] Program" in the lower left-hand corner. Contributions may be sent directly to ACA or may be collected by the Camper Scholarship Administrator and forwarded to ACA. ACA will credit your program's account. ACA will complete a donor acknowledgement letter for each gift and will mail the acknowledgment to the Camper Scholarship Administrator, and the Camper Scholarship Administrator will forward to the donor the ACA acknowledgment along with any separate acknowledgement they may choose to include. These donors will not be incorporated into the ACA donor database for future solicitation.

To award a campership, the Camper Scholarship Administrator must submit a Camper Scholarship Application for each camper. The ACA, Inc. administrative office issues a check within fourteen working days. The total amount requested may not exceed the fee normally charged for campers together with any additional fees that are reasonable and necessary to accommodate special needs of the camper scholarship recipient. Furthermore, such amounts cannot exceed the balance in the program's account. Upon approval of a camper scholarship by ACA, ACA will credit the program's account. The Camper Scholarship Administrator shall comply with all applicable tax laws.

The Camper Scholarship Administrator will determine expenses for the year (knowing the total amount requested from the camper scholarship fund cannot exceed the fee normally charged for campers together with any additional fees that are reasonable and necessary to accommodate special needs of the camper scholarship recipient), supervise the selection of campers (based on the camp's own guidelines/benchmarks), and submit a Camper Scholarship Application for each camper. Any or all of these responsibilities may be delegated. The Camper Scholarship Administrator, however, maintains full and final responsibility with regard to these accounting and program functions.
