

Grant Proposal Process

All “Packing with PEAK” education proposals will be processed and awarded by the Leave No Trace Center for Outdoor Ethics.

Proposals should:

- Be two pages or less in length;
- Include a cover letter;
- Include a description of yourself or your organization, which includes the nature of your work, as well as a summary of recent activities or achievements as they relate to Leave No Trace’s mission; and
- Provide an estimate as to how many youth participants will be reached by the Leave No Trace/PEAK messages.

The Center will not support:

- Political advocacy or lobbying efforts.
- Litigation efforts.
- Capital campaigns or property acquisitions.

The Center will NOT provide cash contributions under any circumstances.

Grants are awarded annually on a rolling-admission basis.

Leave No Trace Center for Outdoor Ethics will respond to all applicants within six weeks of request.

Send all grant proposals to:
Packing with PEAK Fund
Leave No Trace Center for Outdoor Ethics
P.O. Box 997
Boulder, CO 80306

The PEAK program is made possible through a generous grant from

