

Volunteer Engagement Committee

The Volunteer Engagement Committee (VEC) was formed in December 2016. The seven-member committee appointed by Chief Executive Officer (CEO) & President, Tom Rosenberg will implement the Volunteer Development Committee final recommendations and support the field volunteers of the American Camp Association.

Committee Roster

- Rich Garbinsky – Chair, Pinnacle Sports, Medina, OH
- Eric Arnold, Hale Reservation Day Camp, Westwood, MA
- Maggie Braun, WeHaKee Camp for Girls, La Crosse, WI
- Bekah Carmichael, Family League of Baltimore, Baltimore, MD
- Brian Crater, Camp Ronald McDonald for Good Times, Mountain Center, CA
- Dan Mathews, Camp Twin Lakes, Rutledge, GA
- Andrea Yenter, Wisconsin Lions Camp, Rosholt, WI
- Michele Branconier – Staff Liaison, American Camp Association

Committee Charge

The Volunteer Engagement Committee is an operational committee of the American Camp Association appointed by the CEO & President with the purpose of providing volunteer to volunteer support to volunteers across the local field and affiliate offices. The Volunteer Engagement Committee Operating Code.

Committee Update

1. The committee had their initial orientation meeting January 6th, 2017.

Next steps

1. Higher Logic demonstration and feedback – January 13th, 2017
2. NCOL conference call participation – January 17, 2017
3. Work plan development based on the Volunteer Development Committee final recommendations
4. NCOL Meeting participation – February 21, 2016, Albuquerque, NM
5. VEC Meeting – TBD at the ACA National Conference, Albuquerque, NM

More information and history about the Volunteer Development Project